

Train + Bus

For timetables visit www.nationalrail.co.uk

There are fast trains from London King's Cross Station to Cambridge every half hour, taking about 50 minutes. Direct trains are available to Cambridge from Norwich, Ipswich, Kings Lynn, Peterborough, Birmingham, London Liverpool street and Stansted Airport.

From the Railway station you can walk to Brooklands Avenue and take the Uni4 to JJ Thomson Avenue. The bus runs every 20 minutes and the whole journey takes approximately 35 minutes. You can also take Citi buses 1, 3, 7 or 8 to the city centre and then the Citi 4 or 77 to JJ Thomson Avenue, a short walk from Greenwich House.

Train + Cycle

If you're travelling by train, you could bring your bike with you and cycle from the station. The journey will take 20 minutes. Restrictions apply if you are travelling at certain times.
